The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the city and the harbor. In the foreground, numerous skyscrapers of varying heights and architectural styles are visible, their windows reflecting the light. The harbor is filled with water, and several boats can be seen. In the background, the city extends to the hills, with more buildings and greenery visible under the twilight sky. The overall atmosphere is one of a bustling, modern metropolis at the end of the day.
